LD - System communication

There are two main types of system communication that you need to be aware of when using the Live Data product:

- LD - XML messages sent from the Betradar system
- LD - XML messages sent from the client system

Back to top